

Accessibility Design Principles Audit Worksheet

Instructions:

1. Choose a website to audit.
2. Evaluate the site against the five accessibility design principles.
3. Identify one good and one bad example for each category.
4. Provide suggestions for improvement where applicable.
5. Discuss findings with peers if in a group setting.

Colour Contrast

Are all text elements legible? Do they meet WCAG contrast requirements?

- Good Example: _____
- Bad Example: _____
- Suggested Improvement: _____

Colour Blindness Considerations

Are there elements where colour alone conveys meaning? Are alternative indicators used?

- Good Example: _____
- Bad Example: _____
- Suggested Improvement: _____

Large Touch Targets

Are buttons and interactive elements large enough? Are they well-spaced?

- Good Example: _____
- Bad Example: _____
- Suggested Improvement: _____

Clear Layout

Is the page easy to navigate? Is content structured logically?

Accessibility Design Principles Audit Worksheet

- Good Example: _____

- Bad Example: _____

- Suggested Improvement: _____

Readable Fonts

Are the fonts legible? Is line spacing appropriate?

- Good Example: _____

- Bad Example: _____

- Suggested Improvement: _____